Important Information

The undersigned undertake to comply with the provisions of the applicable ordinance and doctoral program regulation (PromVO and DO), and are cognizant of the following in particular:

- The supervisory committee supervises doctoral candidates from admission until submission of the application for doctoral committee constitution (§ 12 para 1 PromVO).
- A doctoral agreement must be submitted to the Graduate School within 16 weeks of the approval of the provisional confirmation of supervision.
- The doctoral agreement must be updated at least once a year. This involves discussing and reviewing the previous year's agreements and defining the next steps (including coursework) for the coming year.
- Changes of co-supervisors can be submitted in a doctoral agreement. No separate application is necessary.
- In case of a change of subject or a change of the principal supervisor, a new Provisional Confirmation of Supervision must be submitted to the Graduate School.
- The maximum duration of doctoral studies is six years. This period begins with admission to doctoral studies and ends with conferral of the doctoral degree following publication of the thesis (§ 20 and § 48 PromVO).
- Doctoral candidates are obliged to inform themselves about all matters relevant to their doctorate, in particular the rules and deadlines that apply to them personally (§ 21 para 2 PromVO).
